Here we have the opportunity to discover a wine, born and bred in the hinterland of Valencia. Medium Bodied in style, the flavour spectrum sits in between Shiraz and Grenache with some delicious and ripe red ripe fruit, balanced with moderate natural tannins. 2011	Chateau de Mont Redon -Lirac Grenache/Shiraz/Cinsault	Rhone Valley	45.00

This property has been in the family for four generations and is one of the most prestigious producers in the Southern Cotes du Rhone. The vineyards are situated on elevated terraces that are covered with large round stones and the wines produced are very characteristic of the soil in this region. This classical blend is juicy and complex and certainly showcases the elegance of the great wines of the Rhone Valley. Although the core of sweet red fruit is apparent, a rustic "je ne sais quoi" is there to alert you that this wine is not from McLaren Vale or Heathcote. It is a delicious melting pot of sweet red fruit, spice, dry herbs and lovely savoury notes and will certainly remind you

2009	E.Guigal - Gigondas	Rhone Valley	62.00

Other reds:

2013	Save Our Soul "S.O.S" Sangiovese	Yarra Valley, Vic.	40.00
------	----------------------------------	--------------------	-------

2 young 'guns' of the wine industry have joined forces to create this new label. William Downie and Jason Searle source their fruit from small vineyards in the Yarra Valley and the Mornington Peninsula, in view to produce great value wines. Mission accomplished with this easy drinking Sangiovese, which abounds of aromas of red cherries and spice. The palate is juicy with the classic mouth drying tannins and lively acidity. More forgiving than its raffia bound Italian counterpart, this Sangiovese will bring a touch of sunshine to your table and a big grin on your face!!!

2013	Dead Mouse Shed by Denton View Hill Cabernet Franc	Yarra Valley, Vic.	42.00

2011	Bricco "Maiolica" Barbera d'Alba	Piedmont	45.00
2007	Vignalta "Agno Tinto" Petite Syrah (Durif)	Veneto	55.00

Vignalta is the only Italian vineyard to produce a wine from Petite Syrah, also known in Australia as Durif. This is a lovely wine with finesse, style and a 'chameleon' personality. It evolves and changes in the glass offering the consumer an great array of flavours: underneath the slightly porty structure, spices start appearing along with soft tannins, a textural mouth feel and a long complex finish. WARNING: this keeps getting better after every swirl in the glass!

Dessert Wine (375ml):

Australia:

2013	Darling Park "Robinson Vineyard" Ice Viognier	Mornington P.,Vic.	8.50	35.00
------	---	--------------------	------	-------

Ice wines are usually produced in extremely cold wine regions such as Canada or Germany, where the grapes are naturally frozen while still on the vine. The Mornington Peninsula is not one of these regions but the same result can be achieved mechanically, producing a wine of pure, bright and unaltered freshness and intense sweetness. Made from Viognier, this single vineyard wine is unsurprisingly extremely luscious with notes of honeyed apricot and lemon curd. A delicious summer wine!!
